

IGNORES BLACK HAND AND EXPLOSION FOLLOWS

Three Demands for $1,000 Fail,
Then Dynamite Is Hurled at Eighth Avenue Store.

Marijano Pianconari, who lives with his wife and three children at No. 135 Eighth avenue and conducts a grocery store on the first floor of the building, failed to deliver "Bills" as directed by three Black Hand letters and early today there was an explosion of dynamite at the door of his store. About six inches of a nine-inch stick of the explosive, all that was left after the crash, was found by Policeman Meisel. Practically no damage was done.

On April 23, Pianconari received a letter signed "Black Hand," demanding that $1,000 be delivered that night. Similar letters were received on April 23 and April 29. He was directed to go from the subway to Dyckman street and then walk back toward Fort George. The letters said an agent would appear for the $1,000. Pianconari said he took the letters as a joke and did not worry the least bit.

FATHER AND SON IN DUEL ABOUT A GIRL

PARIS, Aug. 13.—A duel between father and son has just taken place at Brussels. A farmer's son, named Blanchard, was in love with a girl employed on the farm. He discovered that his father was also in love with her. A fierce quarrel resulted and the pair decided to fight a duel with revolvers. In the presence of the girl six shots were exchanged without any result; whereupon the father and son decided to finish the affair with knives. In the first encounter the son pinned his weapon into the father's breast, inflicting a mortal wound. The murderer has been arrested.

You may be compelled to dispose of your diamonds, and if you do consider, before purchasing them, the intrinsic value. In other words, if you sell them to us, we will give you much cash you can get for it on demand and it will surprise you to hear what you will receive for them. Don't buy our diamonds back! And it's a fact that we can give you more money, and probably you can get $50.00 for it if you go to a place like this to buy diamonds you bought of them. It's the same old story: we'll give you more money than any place else in this establishment. We guarantee to give you $100 cash on demand for any diamond purchased from us, and we have been doing so for thirty-two years. Never have diamonds been sold to us, and we have been doing so for thirty-two years. Never have diamonds been returned, less 10 per cent., and we will refund you cash on request and no questions asked.

No a day goes by that thousands do not stop to look at our display of diamonds. Five or six million dollars worth of diamonds, all plainly marked ($30 to $50,000), can be seen there.
